

BAZAAR BOOTHS for the annual event of St. Margaret Mary's Parish Oct. 6 and 7 at the parish hall are being planned by (back, left to right) Mmes. Wallace Hamilton, William Lipowski, and Frank Fisher, all of the Santa Marguerita Guild, and (front)

Mmes. Bernard Bergschneider, St. Ann Guild, and Burton Amos, Our Lady of Fatima Guild. The event will feature fun, food, prizes and surprises. A barbecue beef dinner will conclude the event Oct. 7 from noon to 7 p. m. —Press Photo

Women

CAROLYN PERKIO, Society Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Cards, Styles Star At Council's Event

"Queen of Hearts" is the theme of the fashion show-card party of the Southwest Area of the Council of Catholic Women, St. James Parish, Friday at 8 p.m. The event, initial ways and means project for the term, will be held at the parish hall.

At present, the women are concentrated on selecting the council member who will reign as "Queen of Hearts." The queen will be elected by ballots cast by members and guests of the parish. Each ballot will be accompanied by a 10 cent donation. There is no limit on the number of ballots cast per individual.

The queen will be presented with a gift certificate from Zone's Apparel Shop, 4940 W. 190th St., North Torrance Shopping Center, and a chapeau from the Paris Hat Shop of South Bay Center.

FASHIONS

Fashions, furnished by Zone's and the Motherhood Maternity Shop, South Bay Center, will be modeled by council members and daughters.

Mrs. Gary O'Neil will comment on the sportswear, afternoon and evening apparel, childrens wear and maternity apparel shown.

A card party will follow the fashion show. A variety of card games and bingo will be played. Prizes will be awarded throughout the evening. They include a floor polisher, service for eight silverware and decorative copperware.

CHAIRMAN

Mrs. Jerome E. Mulcahy was named chairman of the event by Mrs. William E. Taylor, area director. Mrs. Reuben Martin will assist as co-chairman.

Committee chairmen are Mmes. John Smith and Bernard Bois, decorations; Robert Mason and Miss Kathleen Sciarra, programs; William Hynes and LeRoy Naranjo, door prizes; Russel Milligan, refreshments; Ferdinand Ludwig, tickets; Thomas Thomsen and G. T. Cookson, table prizes and favors; Jim Lund, raffle; and Stacy Rodman, publicity.

MODELS

Council members and daughters modeling the fashions are Mmes. Fred Gervig; Robert Menard; James Burschinger; Henry Garvey; Raymond Moorefield; James VanCleve; Robert Falcone; Victor DeRosa; Jack Callahan; and Theodore Mothershead. Child models are Debbie Sheppard and Tina Naranjo.

Hostesses will be Mmes. Ronald Gately, Frank Blydenburgh, Leo Arsenault and Jerome Johnson.

The public may attend. Tickets, $1.75, may be obtained by calling FR 1-2301.

Torrance Stamp Club Begins Term Tomorrow

The Torrance Stamp Club will hold its initial meeting of the term tomorrow night, 7:30 p.m. at Scott Park community building, 23410 Cattskill Ave., Wilmington. Information about the event, featuring an auction, may be obtained by calling TE 4-6718.

Pair Plans November Nuptials

The engagement of Sharon Karene Carter to Lynn Alan Dimmick of Dekater, Nebraska, was announced recently by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Lachnit of Torrance.

The wedding, set for Nov. 3, will take place on the patio of the Carson Arms apartments on West Carson St. in Torrance. Miss Carter, native of Torrance, attended Torrance High School.

Both are employed at Rubber Teck in Gardena. They will reside in Torrance after the November ceremony.

Sorority Takes 'Polar Region' Imaginary Trip

The Xi Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will take an imaginary journey to the "Polar Region" Wednesday at 8 p.m. at Melrose Nursery School, 8306 Melrose, Hollywood.

Program speakers for the imaginary tour will be Martha Oshlerking and Mrs. Frank Pondella.

Mrs. Charles Lockwood of Torrance, president, will lead the business meeting. Plans for the group's philanthropic projects for the year will be disclosed.

Hostesses for the social hour following the meeting will be Mrs. Lockwood and Mrs. Virginia Grummett.

Sept. 30, members and guests will attend a luncheon and fashion show at the Santa Ynez Inn, Pacific Palisades. Making arrangements for this event are Mrs. Ella Smith and Mrs. Edward Porter.

Attending both events from this area will be Mrs. Lockwood, Torrance, and Miss Bettie Wiseman, Manhattan Beach.

League Women Name President For Fall Term

The top post of the Southwood National Little League Auxiliary was given Mrs. Thad Males during the Sept. 12 election of officers.

Other new officers elected include Mmes. Steve Haston, vice president; Alan Butler, secretary; Harry Pelley, treasurer; John Connery, purchasing agent; Edmond Stahlberg, ways and means; and Robert Thurston, publicity.

The meeting, held at Sepulveda Elementary School, was called to order by outgoing president Mrs. Bernard Quinn. The election followed reading of the minutes by Mrs. Haston, outgoing secretary, and a report from Mrs. Stan Sellers, outgoing treasurer.

The new president received, upon her election, a bottle of aspirin from Mrs. Mrs. Ray Cox, was served; Quinn. A cake baked by

Women of Parish To Slate Bazaar

Fun, food, prizes and surprises will be features of St. Margaret Mary's Parish annual bazaar Oct. 6 and 7 at the parish hall in Lomita. A barbecue beef dinner will conclude the event Oct. 7 from noon to 7 p.m.

Participating organizations, guilds and their booths are as follows: Holy Name Society, country store; Children of Mary, candy; St. Margaret Mary's Guild, fish bowl and sno-cone; St. Jude Guild, hamburgers and hot dogs.

Other participants are St. Francis Guild, parcel post and confetti eggs; St. Gerard Guild, throw-the-sponge; Our Lady of Guadalupe Guild, Mexican food; St. Theresa Guild, baked goods; Sacred Heart Guild, travel game; St. Anthony Guild, roll-a-ball; St. Ann Guild, ring toss.

Also participating will be St. Mary Guild, cotton candy; St. Lucy Guild, doll booth and popcorn; Our Lady of Fatima Guild, white elephant; Santa Margarita Guild, novelty booth; St. Joan of Arc Guild, penny pitch; and Our Lady of the Rosary Guild, outer space.

The menu for the Oct. 7 dinner includes barbecued beef, delmonico potatoes, green beans, tossed green salad, rolls, dessert and coffee or milk for children.

Women Voters League to Hold Membership Tea

A tea for prospective members of the Provisional League of Women Voters of Torrance will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Maurice T. Davies, 174 Via Monte D'Oro, Redondo Beach.

Purposes and functions of the league will be explained by Mrs. Davis Menkin, past executive vice president of the California League of Women Voters.

Greeting members and guests will be Mrs. Albert Nadel, president, and the hostess, Mmes. Lee Bower and Donald Brink will pour.

Assisting Mrs. R. R. Christenson, chairman, will be Mmes. Sydney Weiner and Edward Slattery.

A non-partisan, grass-roots organization, the league is dedicated to promotion of political responsibility and good government on the local, state and national level.

Women desiring to learn about league study and activity may attend.

DECKS AND DESIGNS will star Friday at 8 p.m. when the Southwest Area of the Council of Catholic Women, St. James Parish, meets for a fashion show-card party at the parish hall. Concentrating on a game of cards are (left to right) Mmes. Ferdinand Ludwig, ticket chairman, and George Cookson, table prize chairman. Enticing the card players with a preview of Friday's fashion show is Mrs. Thomas Thomsen, table favors chairman. The event is the initial ways and means project for the organization this term. —Press Photo

Couple Says Evening Vows

Nuptial vows joining Barbara Ann Moudy and Ronald Larry Woodring were said at the First Presbyterian Church of Gardena during an 8 p.m. ceremony Sept. 7.

The bride, escorted to the aisle by her father, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin C. Moudy, 3201 W. 179th St., Torrance. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Woodring of Pico Riviera.

Attending the bride was Mrs. Walter Schultz, matron of honor. She wore a pink, satin dress with flowered net covered with seed pearls. She carried pink carnations. Bridegroom's attendant was Walter Woodring, best man.

AT ALTAR

The bride was seen at the altar in a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace over white satin. Seed pearls and iridescent sequins added detail to the gown. Miss Moudy carried a bridal corsage. It had a white orchid with a purple throat on a white Bible and ribbon streamers attached.

Presiding at the double-ring ceremony before 100 guests was the Rev. J. Murray Jones. The church was decorated with two bouquets of white gladiola and mums at the altar and white bows on candelabra and church pews.

ISLAND HONEYMOON

The newlyweds departed from the reception for a one-week honeymoon at Catalina. They now reside in Los Angeles.

The bride, presently employed at Bank of America, is a graduate of Mt. Diablo High School and East Contra Costa Junior College. Woodring, graduate of El Rancho High School, is employed with Francis L. DuPont Stock Brokers.

MRS. RONALD LARRY WOODRING
nee Barbara Ann Moudy

—Photo by Seeman

STAR PLAYERS of Southwood National Little League Auxiliary for the '62-'63 term are Mrs. Thad Males, president, at bat; Mrs. Steve Haston, vice-president, baseman; Mrs. Harry Pelley, treasurer, pitcher; and Mrs. John Connery, purchasing agent, catcher. The new officers of the organization were elected at the September 12 meeting, which opened the new term. The incoming president was presented a bottle of aspirin from the former president.

—Press Photo